Pick a discussion starter. You have all month, so just one will do. Run out? Make some up that fit the theme of the month! (Oh! And turn off those devices! Live chat means just talking.)

- Describe a kind person.
- Who is the kindest person you know? Talk about them.
- When is it hard to be kind to someone?
- What is something kind that people do for you?
- What could you do to be kinder to others?
- How can we put more kindness into our family?

Make it count!

Kindness is a choice. It is also something that we should give whether or not it is deserved. Romans 5:8 describes how, when we were still sinners, Christ died for us. That means God didn't wait until we were sorry or apologized. He chose kindness regardless of whether or not we would notice or appreciate it. Being kind to someone who is kind to us is normal and natural. But being kind to someone who is mean or undeserving is the type of kindness God desires from us. You've heard the saying, "Kill 'em with kindness!" That means when someone is mean and you want to lash out, try kindness instead. You'll be surprised what a difference it makes!

Monthly Motto:
MAKE UP YOUR MIND TO BE KIND

Think about It

Have you ever been bullied on the playground, or been called names by the neighbor kid? When I was a kid, my mom would tell me, "Kill them with kindness." This might sound harsh, but it tells us something about the power of kindness. In Romans 2:4, the apostle Paul says it this way: "God's kindness leads you toward repentance." My mom and the apostle Paul both knew the same biblical truth: Kindness has the power to soften hearts. The Greek word in the Bible for kindness means uprightness or benevolence and describes the ability to act with goodness toward others. Kindness is quite unnatural because it is undeserved. When we have been hurt or offended, we tend to react in anger or bitterness. But kindness leads us to do just the opposite — to respond with love and forgiveness.

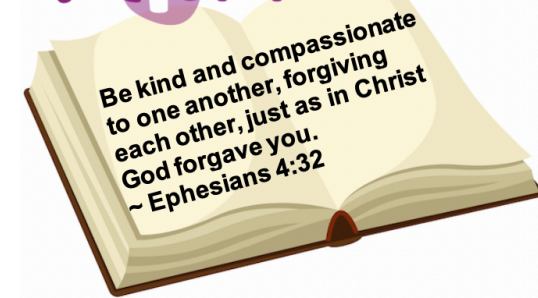

Double DaRE ya!

The family challenge!

Are you up for the challenge? Determine as a family what the reward will be if you complete the challenge!

YOUR CHALLENGE: Kindness is one of the seven Fruits of the Spirit, which also include love, joy, peace, patience, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23). Each of these flows out of us when we are allowing God to love others through us. As you'll see in our Victory Verse, we should be kind because God has been kind to us first. This month, prayerfully choose someone your family knows who could use some kindness. Talk about ways you can show kindness to this person or family.

VICTORY VERSE

As a family, memorize the Victory Verse this month. Make kindness your focus this month as you relate to each other.

Diggin' DEEPER...

- Colossians 3:12-14

GOOFY Game

Name of the Game: Fruit Basket

Needed: Nothing, but some Post-It Notes and a pen are helpful.

How to Play: Assign every chair the name of a fruit. (You may choose to label the chair.) The oldest starts by saying his or her fruit and then another fruit ("Apple-Orange!"). Whoever is Orange then quickly says his or her fruit and another at the table ("Orange-Grape!") as fast as possible. However, no one may repeat the fruit named just before them. Anyone who messes up is "out." At any point, the oldest family member can yell "Fruit Basket," and everyone has to jump up and change. Play begins again, and everyone is "in" as they continue with their new fruit. Keep it moving!
